WHEREAS, Emily has contributed greatly to the preparation of Senator Haun for floor and committee sessions, and has gained keen insight into floor debates and the intricate details of the Senate Transportation Committee; and

WHEREAS, eager to familiarize herself with the characteristics and complexity of Tennessee state government and to further her studies, Ms. Yarbrow brought her many abilities and singular expertise to Capitol Hill for the 2002 Session of the One Hundred Second General Assembly; and

WHEREAS, throughout the 2002 legislative session, Emily Yarbrow has surpassed all criteria that define a devoted and conscientious legislative intern, including daily amusing the office staff with her childhood stories of swallowing shiny dimes and playing with her sister's imaginary friend; and

WHEREAS, chosen from a vast pool of qualified applicants from all over the state to serve as a legislative intern for the Tennessee General Assembly, Ms. Yarbrow has performed her many and various duties with extraordinary insight and rare decorum, displaying a natural skill and superior intelligence that has earned her the respect and admiration of her peers, Senator Haun, the Senate Transportation Committee and the Staff and the members of the Tennessee General Assembly; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE ONE HUNDRED SECOND GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF TENNESSEE, That we hereby commend Ms. Emily Yarbrow for outstanding service as a legislative intern for Senator Haun and the Senate Transportation Committee and extend to her our best wishes for every good thing in life and every future success.
